An Old Kentuckian

Writes About Texas.

Nelta, Texas
I will try and give a short description of this part of Texas. As most every one knows, Texas is the largest state in the Union. Its measurement from north to south is 740 miles and from east to west, 825 miles. Area, 266,011 square miles or 170,247,940 acres. Nelta is a pretty little village of Hopkins county and is in 18 miles of Sulphur Springs, our nearest R. R., town and county seat. It is in the north-eastern part of Texas, and on the broad prairies where the land is almost as level as a floor, where one sees the first and last rays of the rising and setting sun.
We have had a very mild winter here. Ice hasn't been one-fourth inch thick and the ground hasn't frozen that deep. We have had three light snows. The woods and fields are green, flowers are in bloom, gardens are up and looking well, farmers have almost finished planting corn and some are now planting cotton. Cotton is their principal crop here. Oats and sorghum grow here, also peaches and small fruit to some extent. Blackberries are largely cultivated and sell at 20c per gallon. Apples are not raised in this section. Live cattle are shipped to northern markets, droves of 300 to 500 often pass through our town.
We have a good school. Teachers wages of public county schools from $35 to $80 a month.
Everything seems prosperous. We like Texas very well but for health give me the hills and valleys of dear old Kentucky. She can not be surpassed, and though we may wander far away, our best and dearest love will still be with our native state.
"The dear old state of Kentucky,
Our long loved native state,
We have always loved her dearly,
But we love her more of late."
Mrs. H. H. Johnson.
Doctors Are Puzzled.
The remarkable recovery of Kenneth McIver, of Vanceboro, Me., is the subject of much interest to the medical fraternity and a wide circle of friends. He says of his case: "Owing to severe inflammation of the Throat and congestion of the Lungs, three doctors gave me up to die when, as a last resort, I was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery and I am happy to say it saved my life." Cures the worst Coughs and Colds. Bronchitis, Tonsillitis, Weak Lungs. Hoarseness and La Grippe. Guaranteed at Severs Drug Co.'s drug store. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

Still Takes Interest

In Old Home Doings.

Mr. Jno. D. Babbage, Cloverport, Ky.
Dear Sir:—I enclose check on account as per statement rendered. We still take a lively interest in the doings of old Breckenridge county and have missed reading very few issues of the News since leaving there nearly fourteen years ago. A few Kentuckians reside here, among them Hon. J. F. Sulzer, who represents this county in the upper house of the legislature. We are proud of him, as he is one of the very few in that body who has the courage to stand for the right against the gang of grafters who have controlled this territory for years. This county has turned them down and Sulzer was the man that started the reform.
What is the matter with your correspondents in the eastern part of the county? We seldom see an item from Custer, Rosetta, Garfield or any point near. I have a very lively interest in that section, and keep an eye on them. When last there I noticed that most all those who were my friends were growing old. Now, by following the star of empire west and living in the "wide open" beneath the "skies of Italy" I have fared fairly well. Time has let me off easily.
This is a new and yet the oldest of American civilizations. Many things of interest to write about here if time permitted. With kindest regards to all who have not forgotten me, I am,
Very truly yours,
Sidney J. Brack,
847 N. Eighth St.,
Albuquerque, New Mexico.
The News—No Pure Drug Cough Cure
Laws would be needed, if all Cough Cures were like Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure is—and has been for 20 years. The National Law now requires that if any poisons enter into a cough mixture, it must be printed on the label or package. For this reason mothers, and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison marks on Dr. Shoop's labels—and none in the medicine, else it must by law be on the label. And it's not only safe, but it is said to be by those that know it best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take no chance, particularly with your children. Insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and see. No poison marks there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Simply refuse to accept any other. Sold by Severs Drug Co.
